french. and at the end of each lesson you can download a transcript of the lesson, complete with all the key words and phrases, in both french and english! hi mark, thanks for getting back to us and for the explanation. the descriptions you provided on the coffee break website seem to indicate that lessons 1-30 of season 2 have a similar pace to the earlier lessons, while lessons 31-40 are slightly more challenging. in this way, i think youve got it right. thanks again for the explanation. hi lenny. apologies for the slow reply our notifications were not set correctly so we missed your comment. were sorry that you find that the conversations in lessons 31-40 are a big jump from the rest of the course. its true that there is an increase in the difficulty level, but we wanted to introduce a more challenging level at the end of the course because when learners are exposed to real french when travelling then this is not slowed-down, easy french its how people really speak. the conversations in lessons 31-40 build on what has gone before and we feel that they represent a fair progression from the earlier lessons, while offering learners the chance to be challenged more. as you progress onto season 2 youll see that for lessons 1-30 we return to the similar pace of the earlier lessons, always growing and moving forward. then lessons 31-40 of season 2 have a similar more challenging nature. i hope this helps to explain. hi gery. sorry for the slow reply our notifications were not set correctly so we missed your comment. were sorry that you find that the conversations in lessons 31-40 are a big jump from the rest of the course. its true that there is an increase in the difficulty level, but we wanted to introduce a more challenging level at the end of the course because when learners are exposed
