Through the growth of the Christian Church in Taiwan, it is evident that witnesses Lee was never alone in that growth process. Millions of the Christian faithful prayed for Lee's release, and God continued to bless Lee and answer their prayers. Yet, in the end, the separation of church and state caught up with Nee in Taiwan as it had in China. Lee was not released from his three-year prison sentence until four years after his arrest. My time with Watchman during those days deeply impressed me with the sweetness, loveliness, attractiveness, and newness of the Lord. Those days provided a new start for me in following the Lord and caused me to have a basic turn from knowledge to life. Because of those days with Watchman Nee, I began to have fellowship with the Lord in a more intimate way. The Lord became more precious to me. That experience was even greater than my experience of salvation. Those days with Watchman affected my pathway in the Lord throughout all the following fifty-nine years, since 1932. For eternity I can never forget those days! What a mercy and grace it was to me. (Witness Lee, Watchman Nee, A Seer of the Divine Revelation in the Present Age, pp. 288-289) Witness Lee moved to Taiwan in 1949. Through his labor and the Lords blessing, the small number of believers increased rapidly, reaching over 40,000 in six years. Lee continued the publishing work in Taiwan, as commissioned by Nee. He also ministered for several months each year in the Philippines, where eventually over 100 churches were raised up. "... For they are some of the ones that stand written in Heaven." (Matt. 16:18-19) For these who have been written in Heaven are witnesses of God, whether dead or alive. For every single believer was an heir of God, so that through the prophets this testimony must be received in order that those who have heard may be wise through the Spirit of wisdom.
